

the art of

Patisse Patisserie and café is any pastry-lovers delight – just-baked tarts filled with everything from cherry to chocolate – set out like artwork on jewellery-like displays in keeping with the state-of-the-art objects on display in the trendy art and food precinct in Danks Street Precinct at Waterloo, Sydney, each cake at Patisse is set out like an artwork, in pastry, fruit and sugar.

Everyone loves pastries, so the sweet smells wafting out of Patisse make it a very popular addition to the PYD Building.

Operating as a patisserie/café, Patisse specialises in pastry of all kinds, however also provides a lunch menu with seasonal mains, sandwiches, salads and of course great coffee!

Learn the art of making sweet, short crust and savoury pastries! Patisse have a variety of evening cooking classes to suit your taste buds. Learn to make yummy hot cross buns, Italian treats such as Cannoli, Tiramisu and Biscotti, chocolate tarts, or try your hand at French baking. Come on your own or bring a crowd!

Each class is hands-on and usually lasts four hours. Participants arrive around 6pm, are offered a glass of wine and an outline of the evening. Baking starts at around 6.20pm, then break for a light supper mid evening, then resume cooking through to 10pm.

At the end of the evening you will have mastered basic baking skills and have a box of fabulous treats to take home.

Patisse also offer gift vouchers for classes as a special gift to a friend. You may like to offer these for one class or a range of classes.
